

Elderly Surprise

By

Stuart Whitter

Taken from Stuarts "Binge of Cringe" selection

1 Samara Close Fountaindale January 2020
NSW2258
SDWhitter@Gmail.com

INT. HOME OF AN ELDERLY PERSON. DAY

An ELDERLY WOMAN sits and watches TV with BENJIE sitting nearby

NARRATOR

Benjie's Grandmother is recovering from a little fall. Benjie, her Grandson has called to see how she is. He's a good boy.

The young man gets up from his chair and puts his coat on.

ELDERLY WOMAN

Thanks for coming round Benjie-Boy. I always enjoy your little visits. Take care on the road and give my love to your mum.

BENJIE

I will Nan. Thanks for the tea and biscuits. And the nuts. By the way, where did you get them?

ELDERLY WOMAN

Your mum gave them to me when I was in hospital.

BENJIE

They were delicious

ELDERLY WOMAN

I couldn't eat them myself. Not with my dentures! All I could do was suck the chocolate off.