INVITES YOU TO THE

Video & Movie Makers Clubs' Meeting on Saturday 27th October 2018

To be held at the Southwest Video Club Sydney
St Joseph's Parish Hall - 45 Nuwarra Road - Moorebank - NSW - 2170

The day will start at 9.30 am with light refreshments and end about 4.00 pm

We are planning to book dinner at a local restaurant that serves Vietnamese and Australian food for those who are staying overnight.

We have arranged for the following speakers to attend

Greg Grainger an award-winning producer and presenter of topical travel and adventure documentaries, and wildlife programs.

His highly acclaimed adventures have been captured on film, activities as diverse as sky burials in Tibet to shark riding in Tahiti, expeditions across the Arctic and Antarctic, as well as along the Andes and the Himalayas.

Martha Mollison is a freelance video producer with over twenty-five years experience. Martha has taught both in Australia and the US at universities, colleges, cable TV stations and community organisations. She is currently based in Sydney Australia.

Martha is author of the book Producing Videos which has been called the 'bible' of video making. A bestseller over many years, it offers a comprehensive and user friendly guide to all aspects of video production.

Alf Nguyen is a data storage specialist from Silicon Memory Technologies. He has 20 years experience working with data storage for IT and media & entertainment industries.

As your data is your most important asset for your project, Alf discusses on the many ways to efficiently manage your data for production and backup with the technologies that are available.
